Executive Dining Room
For staff only

International Women's Day Breakfast Event

*“Women in Decision-Making,
The Pacific Island Challenge: A Samoan Story”*

Pacific Island nations have the fewest women representatives in parliament in the world. Three have none at all. Deputy Prime Minister Mataafa of Samoa will talk about the challenges faced by women attempting to actively participate in politics and to maintain political leadership in the Pacific. She will share her personal journey of 32 years in Samoan politics.

8 MARCH

1:30 p.m.–2 p.m.
kHub
For staff only

Insight Thursday

“Be That Guy”

Shanny Campbell, Deputy Country Director of ADB's Afghanistan Resident Mission, will share details of a grassroots staff initiative, “Be That Guy,” intended to positively influence organizational culture by stealth. Learn how a cadre of ADB men and women across the Bank have committed to identify and ‘call out’ those seemingly small everyday actions that on a cumulative basis, send the wrong message about our commitment to a diverse and supportive workplace.

16 MARCH

10:30 a.m.–12 noon
Auditorium C-D
Open to the public

Gender Month Distinguished Speaker: Helen Clark

“Breaking the glass ceilings: reflections on the future of women's leadership”

As the first ever elected female Prime Minister of New Zealand and the first female Administrator of United Nations Development Programme, Helen Clark has broken many glass ceilings during her career. Helen Clark is ADB's Gender Month Distinguished Speaker for 2018, and will share her reflections on the future of women's leadership.
