

<Seminar schedule is subject to change>

Sustainable Urban Development in the context of Livability in Cities

26th September 2019

Asian Development Bank Institute, Tokyo, Japan

Introduction:

The objective of the seminar is to enhance capacity and increase knowledge amongst officials and experts on key issues and challenges related to sustainable development and livability in cities.

The seminar will offer innovative indicators to form policy instrument and tackle challenges related to sustainable development and livability in cities. The session is followed by the discussions with invited speakers.

12:30 – 13:00	Registration
13:00 – 13:05	Opening Remarks Naoyuki Yoshino, Dean ADBI
13:05 – 14:05	Sustainable Urban Development in the context of Livability in Cities
	Presentations: Takahashi Kyoko, The University of Tokyo Kudo Shogo, The University of Tokyo Discussions chaired by Naoyuki Yoshino, Dean ADBI
14:05 – 14:10	Closing Remarks K E Seetha Ram, ADBI
14:10 – 15:00	Coffee/Networking