

2021 International Climate Change Conference (ICCC) A Just and Affordable Transition toward Net Zero

THURSDAY, 22 JULY 2021
9:00 AM – 4:00 PM JAKARTA TIME

The virtual 2021 International Climate Change Conference will provide a platform to discuss international best practices that can help the Asian Development Bank's (ADB) developing member countries such as Indonesia transition to a low-carbon and resilient economy.

With the theme "A Just and Affordable Transition toward Net Zero," the ICCC will showcase various initiatives taken on climate change, discuss constraints countries face in addressing climate change, and identify possible solutions. The Conference will also highlight the role of multilateral development partners like ADB in supporting climate action in Indonesia and other countries.

REGISTER NOW:
https://adb.eventsair.com/indonesia-international-climate-change-conference

What to expect at ICCC 2021

Keynote presentations by:

- Sri Mulyani Indrawati
Minister of Finance, Republic of Indonesia
- Masatsugu Asakawa
President, Asian Development Bank
- Nicholas Stern
Chair of Grantham Research Institute on Climate Change and Environment, London School of Economics

Plenary sessions on:

- Challenges and opportunities of a just and affordable pathway to net zero
- Identifying sector pathways for mitigation and adaptation in Indonesia

Parallel technical discussions on:

- Sustainable finance in Asia
- Supporting the clean energy transition
- Enhancing investment in adaptation and resilience
- Article 6 of the Paris Agreement and carbon market