

Using Past Experiences to Guide Future Development in SIDs and FCAS
22 June 2021 (Tuesday), 3:00-4:30 pm Manila time

The spread of COVID-19 has gravely impacted the 2030 Agenda, and nowhere more sharply than in the least developed, fragile, and conflict affected countries. IED and SCDCC invite you to join a panel discussion on how ADB can improve the effectiveness of its operations and achieve its Strategy 2030 objectives and in Fragile and Conflict-Affected Situations (FCAS) and Small Island Developing States (SIDS) by using lessons from its past experiences.

AGENDA

3:00 - 3:05	Introduction
	Saleha Waseem Senior Evaluation Specialist, Independent Evaluation Department (IED)
3:05 - 3:15	Presentation
	Benjamin Graham Advisor, IED
3:15 - 4:00	Panel Discussion
	Round 1: Setting the Context Round 2: Looking Forward
	Moderator:
	Marvin Taylor-Dormond Director General, IED
	Panelists:
	Sergio Lugaesi Executive Director, BOD
	Leah Gutierrez Director General, PARD
	Joanne Asquith Director, Thematic and Country Division, IED
	Samuel Tumiwa Advisor (Conflict-Affected Situations), SDCC
	Stephan Wegner Senior Evaluation Officer, Independent Evaluation Group World Bank
4:00 - 4:25	Audience Interaction
4:25 - 4:30	Closing Remarks