

Aligning Public Development Banks with the Post-2020 Global Biodiversity Framework

31 January 2022 (Monday) / 4 - 5 PM PHT/MNL (GMT+8); 9 - 10 AM CET (GMT+7)

The webinar will discuss how public development banks (PDBs) can support the post 2020 global biodiversity framework and make a positive contribution to biodiversity.

It will unpack the 'financing green' concept, illustrate how PDBs invest in nature, and how PDBs can support in-country enabling conditions and policy environment to facilitate private finance and investments that generate biodiversity co-benefits and help align funds with climate objectives.
