

ADBI-PPS-OECD Workshop on Public Procurement for Innovation

Jointly organized by:

Asian Development Bank Institute (ADBI)
Public Procurement Service, Republic of Korea (PPS)
Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)

17 February 2022 (Japan/Republic of Korea (JP/KR) and Paris (PA) times)

Hybrid or Virtual Workshop

	Program
16:00 - 16:05 (JP/KR) 08:00 - 08:05 (PA)	Welcoming Remarks Tetsushi Sonobe, Dean, ADBI
16:05 - 16:15 08:05 - 08:15	Opening Speech Kim Chungwoo, Administrator, PPS (pre-recorded) OECD (TBD)
16:15 8 – 16:20 08:15 8 - 08:20	Group Photo (online)
16:20 – 17:20 08:20 - 09:20	Session 1: Public Procurement and Innovation Moderator: Paulo Magina, OECD Public procurement can play a prominent role in driving innovation. It accounts for a big part of public expenditure and gross domestic product, and offers enormous market potential for innovative products and services, and in particular, start-ups. This session will discuss the relationship between public procurement and innovation, and how to use public procurement to drive innovation and innovation-led growth. It will also introduce the more strategic use of public procurement as a public policy instrument.
	Presentations (10 minutes each)  How to Use Public Procurement for Innovation Paulo Magina, Deputy Head, infrastructure and Public Procurement Division, OECD  Public Procurement's Role in Innovation Luis Ferreira, Promotion and Monitoring of Innovation Policies Unit, National Innovation Agency, Portugal

	Green Procurement beyond Innovation New Zealand Government Procurement, Ministry of Business, Innovation &amp; Employment, New Zealand (TBD) Empirical Analysis on Local Content Requirements Dina Azhgaliyeva, Research Fellow, ADBI Open Discussion (Question &amp; Answer) (20 minutes)
17:20 – 18:20 09:20 - 10:20	Session 2: Effective Public Procurement System Moderator: Seungju Baek, Deputy Dean, ADBI To shift the focus of public procurement from cost compliance to innovation or value creation requires a strong enabling environment. This session will share best practices to reform public procurement system for innovation, and to overcome challenges in implementing innovative public procurement goals and action plans. Moreover, it will also introduce efficient public procurement information system in the digital age, which has been rapidly growing since COVID-19. Presentations 10 minutes each Reform of Public Procurement System for Innovation in the Republic of Korea Eungkeul Kim, Director General for Innovation Procurement, Public Procurement Service Korea's Experience in Innovation Procurement Byounggun Kim, Head of Innovation Research Center, Korean Institute of Procurement Korea's Innovation in E-Procurement Minsoo Choi, Deputy Director, E-Procurement Management Division, Public Procurement Service E-GP Trends and Innovations in Asia and Pacific Galiya Ismakova, Principal Procurement Specialist, Asian Development Bank Open Discussion (Question &amp; Answer) (20 minutes)
18:20 – 18:30 10:20 - 10:30	Closing