

As of 4.10.26

ASEAN Climate Week 2026

27 April – 1 May 2026 | Philippines (Virtual & Limited In-Person)

Convened under the Philippines' ASEAN 2026 Chairship

27 April 2026 (Morning | In-person) 11:30 - 12:00 PM

Signing of the Philippines–Singapore Implementation Agreement

 Seda Hotel, BGC, Taguig City (RSVP)

A DENR-organized national event ahead of ASEAN Climate Week 2026.

Tentative Agenda

27 April 2026 (Afternoon | Virtual) 1:30 - 5:30 PM

Inaugural Session of ASEAN Climate Week 2026

From Commitments to Delivery: Advancing NDC Implementation in ASEAN

- High-level dialogue providing strategic guidance on NDC delivery
- Focus on translating NDCs into policies, programs, and investments
- Peer learning and identification of priority areas for ASEAN cooperation
- Target Participants: ASEAN Member States government officials, ASEAN Secretariat and Sectoral body representatives, ADB and other multilateral and bilateral development partners, Policy think tanks, academia, civil society, and private sector representatives
- Co-organized by: DENR and ADB

Tentative Agenda

ASEAN
PHILIPPINES 2026

Thematic Sessions & Parallel Events

27 April 2026 | ASEAN Climate Week – Day 1 (hybrid) 3:30-5:00 PM
Demonstrating Biodiversity and Climate Change Interlinkages in the ASEAN

- Advances integrated responses to the triple planetary crisis across ASEAN
- Highlights nature-based solutions and ecosystem-based approaches for resilience, mitigation, and sustainable livelihoods
- Participants: ASEAN Member States government officials, ASOEN, including representatives associated with ASEAN Sectoral bodies, Representatives from the projects supported under the ASEAN UK GTF NbS Pillar, Civil Society organizations, Academia and the private sector working on biodiversity and climate change
- Implementing Partners: DENR, ASEAN Centre for Biodiversity (ACB), ASEAN-UK Green Transition Fund, and other regional partners

Tentative Agenda

28 April 2026 | ASEAN Climate Week – Day 2 (Virtual) 2:00 - 4:00 PM
Financing Climate and Biodiversity Action in ASEAN

- Provides an overview of the climate and biodiversity finance landscape in ASEAN
- Showcases innovative financing mechanisms, partnerships, and city-level case studies

ASEAN
PHILIPPINES 2026

- Implementing Partners: GIZ-TRANSCEND, Climate Change Commission (CCC), DENR, C40/GCoM

Tentative Agenda

29 April – 1 May 2026 | Virtual

ASEAN Loss and Damage Knowledge Exchange & Comprehensive Risk Management Training

- 29 April 2026 9:30 AM - 3:00 PM- Knowledge exchange on loss and damage, Eco-DRR, mobility and climate risk | Participants will share country experiences, progress, and challenges in addressing climate-related loss and damage, including the use of climate risk data, disaster loss information, and policy frameworks, while identifying regional gaps and opportunities for cooperation
- 30 April 2026 9:00 AM - 3:50 PM- Training on Understanding and Addressing Loss and Damage in ASEAN and Assessing Climate Change Impacts, Economic and Non-Economic Loss and Damage | Participants will enhance their understanding of loss and damage concepts, methodologies, and data systems, and engage in group discussions and exercises on national experiences, policy integration, and regional priorities
- 01 May 2026 9:00 AM - 3:10 PM- Comprehensive Risk Management and Financing Mechanism for Addressing Loss and Damage | Participants will explore integrated climate risk management approaches, including disaster risk financing, risk transfer mechanisms, and social protection systems, and identify strategic actions for ASEAN cooperation
- Target Participants: Policymakers and practitioners from ASEAN Member States, including representatives from environment, climate change, meteorology/hydrological services, disaster risk management, national planning, and infrastructure agencies; ASEAN Secretariat and relevant sectoral bodies and centres; international organisations and development partners; civil society organisations; and research institutions and experts on climate policy and risk management.

ASEAN
PHILIPPINES 2026

- Implementing Partners: GIZ-CAP, CCIPH, IOM, DENR

Tentative Agenda

29–30 April 2026 | ASEAN Climate Week Parallel Session (Virtual)

Climate Finance and Climate Modelling for Economic Planning & Finance Mobilization

- 29 April - 9:30 AM - 3:30 PM : Climate finance priorities, adaptation finance strategies, and tracking tools | AMS will share country-level climate finance strategies, learn about new adaptation finance guidelines, and explore innovative tools for tracking finance flows and measuring results
- 30 April - 9:30 AM - 5:00 PM : Climate economy modelling for planning and fiscal risk analysis | Participants will engage in hands-on demonstrations and peer sharing regarding a climate-economy modelling tool designed to assess economic impacts and guide national planning and fiscal risk analysis
- Target Participants: Finance, environment, planning, and economic agencies from AMS
- Implementing Partners: UNDP, DOF, DENR

Tentative Agenda

1 May 2026 | Virtual 9:30 AM - 3:00 PM

ASEAN–UK Green Transition Fund - ALAM

Financial Flows Forum: Exploring Pathways for Increased Climate Finance in Southeast Asia

- Explore strategic points of convergence between AMS country priorities on NbS and programme priorities of climate funds, development partners, and accredited/implementing entities.

- Identify prospective partners for the multi-country project concept note on haze-free sustainable land management and gather their initial insights;
- Exchange views among ASEAN Member States on the potential of ASEAN Centres to facilitate climate finance in the region
- Discuss ways forward for ASEAN Centres interested in pursuing GCF accreditation
- Target Participants: Representatives from the ASEAN Taskforce on AIF-HFSLM (ATA), ASEAN Working Group on Climate Change, ASEAN Centre and selected representatives from financial institutions with climate change and NbS portfolios
- ALAM (Advancing Learning and capacities in the ASEAN on Mitigation: Financing a Just and Nature-Positive Energy Transition) Project
- Implementing Partners: Parabukas Pte. Ltd.

Tentative Agenda

Overall Purpose

ASEAN Climate Week 2026 aims to advance NDC implementation, scale climate and biodiversity finance, strengthen regional cooperation on loss and damage, and build institutional capacity through high-level dialogue, technical exchanges, and targeted training across ASEAN.

Registration Link for Participants