

OFFICIAL

PACIFIC INFRASTRUCTURE ROADSHOW

5-6 JUNE 2025

Partners:

OFFICIAL

BOARDROOM BRIEFING (5 JUNE)

Venue: DFAT QLD State Office, Level 16, 150 Charlotte Street Brisbane QLD 4000

Time (AEST)	Agenda
09:00 – 09:45	Besix Watpac Wade Cummins, General Manager of QLD, NT & NZ Liam O’Rourke, Commercial Manager Michael Barton, Estimating Manager Roy Cassidy, Cost Manager Kaityn Davidson, Director of Strategic Growth, Corporate Affairs and Marketing Besix Watpac is a leading Australian multi-disciplinary construction company backed by a century of global expertise and financial strength. A wholly owned subsidiary of the award-winning international contractor BESIX Group, they specialise in complex construction across all sectors, including infrastructure and marine works. We understand Besix Watpac does not have a presence in the Pacific
10:00 – 10:45	Prime BMD Colin Mitchell, National General Manager, Strategy The BMD Group proudly operates five companies in our unique vertical integration business model, including BMD Constructions, BMD Urban, Empower, JMac, and Urbex. BMD delivers innovative and comprehensive solutions across civil construction, engineering design, residential and industrial land development, project management consultancy, landscape construction and maintenance, and building construction. Prime BMD was previously present in the Pacific but due to challenges around pipeline visibility has since focused on Southeast Asia.
12:00 – 12:45	Shamrock Civil Bredan Kealy, Director, National General Manager, Strategy Sean Keane, Commercial Manager Shamrock Civil is a privately owned civil construction company, delivering services to the Defence and Government sectors, gas and mining,

Partners:

transport infrastructure and commercial. Their civil construction services include:

- Roads and bridges
- Water pipelines and infrastructure
- Sewerage pipelines and infrastructure
- Landfill cells and facilities
- Airport runways, aprons and ancillary works
- Railway holding and marshalling yards, sidings and station works

Shamrock Civil does not have a presence in the Pacific.

Participating Pacific Infrastructure Partners

Name	Designation	Participation
Brad Williams	General Manager, NZ Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission	All
Tim Houghton	Trade Commissioner, Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission	All
Mick Lilley	Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade	Sydney, Brisbane
Rupert Brock	Director Infrastructure Pacific East	Brisbane
Mohammad Amin Saskai	Senior Procurement Specialist, World Bank	All
Adam Pearce	State Director QLD, Business Financing Export Finance Australia	Brisbane
Rubina Shaheen	Principal Procurement Specialist, Asian Development Bank	All

Partners:

AFTERNOON SEMINAR (5 JUNE)

Venue: Corrs Chambers Westgarth 42, 111 Eagle St, Brisbane City QLD 4000

Time (AEST)	Agenda
13:30	Registrations open
14:00	Host Welcome Representative from Corrs Chambers Westgarth
14:05	Introduction and Seminar Overview Brad Williams General Manager, NZ Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission
14:10	Whole-of-Pacific Infrastructure Pipeline Summary Tim Houghton Trade Commissioner, Pacific, Australian Trade & Investment Commission Tim Houghton is the Australian Trade Commissioner for the Pacific based in Suva, Fiji. Tim will present on the $1.9 billion whole-of-region infrastructure pipeline split across 566 upcoming contracts from ADB, World Bank, DFAT/AIFFP, EU/EIB and New Zealand. He will present a breakdown by sector, market and give a sense of what's coming up next.
14:20	Activity Overview: Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific Mick Lilley, Chief Investment Officer (Acting), Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific (AIFFP), Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Mick Lilley is currently acting Chief Investment Officer for the AIFFP. He has been with the AIFFP since its inception. Mick has a long history as a public servant, investment banker and infrastructure adviser. Mick will speak to upcoming projects within the AIFFP portfolio.

Partners:

14:30

Activity Overview: World BankMohammad Amin Saskai Senior Procurement Specialist – World Bank

Amin is a Senior Procurement Specialist at the World Bank, based in Sydney. He leads procurement reform dialogue with Pacific Island countries and provides strategic advice and fiduciary support across a range of World Bank-financed projects.

Amin will speak about upcoming procurement opportunities and the World Bank's ongoing efforts to advance procurement reform in the region. His remarks will focus on how these reforms are driving improved outcomes, with an emphasis on enhancing quality, strengthening systems, and aligning with international best practices.

14:40

Activity Overview: Asian Development BankRubina Shaheen Principal Procurement Specialist, Asian Development Bank

Rubina is Principal Procurement Specialist at Asian Development Bank located at ADB office in Papua New Guinea and covering South Pacific Region. She has diversified experience working in public procurement on various infrastructure projects including procurement reforms. Rubina will focus on ADB Procurement Framework and the upcoming ADB pipeline.

14:50

Activity Overview: Australian Department of DefenceRupert Brock Director Infrastructure Pacific East, Department of Defence

Rupert is an experienced public servant having spent his 15-year career working on Asia-Pacific issues across Defence, AusAID and DFAT positions. This included work on fragile states and operationalising logistic support for sudden onset crises and COVID deployments. Rupert is currently acting as Director Infrastructure (Indo-Pacific East), Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Branch within Pacific Division, responsible for delivery and maintenance of security-related infrastructure for Indo-Pacific partner nations. Rupert will be speaking about future Defence project opportunities across the Indo-Pacific.

Partners:

15:00

Perspective of the Private Sector: Reeves International

Simon Gorman Managing Director CCB Envico & Reeves International

Simon is a construction professional who has managed projects across the world. He has significant experience in international disaster settings and complex emergencies as well as traditional large-scale infrastructure. He has spent time working on and leading projects in Indonesia, Hong Kong, Rwanda, Somalia, Vanuatu, Micronesia, the Solomon Islands, Sri Lanka and the Marshall Islands. Simon is currently the President of the Australia Pacific Islands Business Council (APIBC) and will talk about doing business in the Pacific from the perspective of a contractor.

15:10

Understanding Financing Support Available: Export Finance Australia

Adam Pearce State Director QLD, Business Financing Export Finance Australia

Over 20 years' experience in international banking and corporate financing. Banking experience with ANZ, Corporate and Property. Specialising in assisting companies establish and grow their international market presence. Adam will highlight the role of Export Finance Australia and its capacity to support the private sector in capitalising on Pacific infrastructure opportunities.

15:20

Highlighting Upcoming Events

Pacific Infrastructure Conference

The Australia Pacific Islands Business Council is coordinating the upcoming Pacific Infrastructure Conference (18-20 August 2025). Attendees will include Pacific Islands governments, development partners and the private sector. This builds on the inaugural event in 2023 and the Business Opportunities Seminar in Nadi in 2024, both of which had 400-500 delegates.

Looking Further in Infrastructure Opportunities: Southeast Asia

Austrade Southeast Asia have prepared a pre-recorded video highlighting opportunity across the region. The key event for getting more information on these opportunities is to register for the ADB Business Opportunities Fair held in Manila (16-17 September 2025).

Partners:

15:25	Q&A
15:45	Close
15:45 – 17:30	Networking afternoon tea

BOARDROOM BRIEFING (6 JUNE)

Venue: DFAT QLD State Office, Level 16, 150 Charlotte Street Brisbane QLD 4000

Time (AEST)	Agenda
09:00 – 09:45	Seymour Whyte Andrew Cosgrove, Director, Defence Tony Perkovic, National Business Development Manager Seymour Whyte is a multi-award-winning civil contractor that delivers major essential infrastructure across Australia. They have earned a solid reputation for delivering complex, innovative projects that often include difficult staging, engineering and environmental challenges, logistical constraints and stakeholder impacts.
10:00 – 10:45	Fulton Hogan Brad Thompson, National Strategic Projects Development Manager Richard Cowley, Pre Contracts Manager - Northern Region Fulton Hogan has 90 years' experience in the transport, water, energy, mining and land development infrastructure sector in New Zealand, Australia and the South Pacific. Specialties: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Road maintenance & construction • Facilities management • Asphalt production • Quarries • Laboratories

Partners:

- Airports & ports
 - Traffic management
 - Asset management
 - Rail
 - Civil construction
 - Transport
 - Energy & mining
 - Road maintenance
 - Water & wastewater
 - Land development
 - Utilities
 - Telecommunications
- Fulton Hogan was previously present in the Pacific but withdrew. They have set regional expansion as a strategic objective and are keen to engage.

11:00 – 11:45

CPB
Vince Sanfilippo, QLD & PNG General Manager
Ross Olsen, QLD & PNG Pre-Contracts Manager
Emma McCaughey, QLD & PNG Head of Client and Strategy

CPB are trusted to construct Australia and New Zealand’s most complex, critical infrastructure projects. CPB Contractors' operating structure is enabled by expert teams, and some of the industry’s best systems, technology and delivery frameworks.

CPB is present in PNG and has interest in expanding across the region.

Participating Pacific Infrastructure Partners

Name	Designation	Participation
Tim Houghton	Trade Commissioner, Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission	All

Partners:

Mick Lilley	Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade	Sydney, Brisbane
Rupert Brock	Director Infrastructure Pacific East	Brisbane
Mohammad Amin Saskai	Senior Procurement Specialist, World Bank	All
Adam Pearce	State Director QLD, Business Financing Export Finance Australia	Brisbane
Rubina Shaheen	Principal Procurement Specialist, Asian Development Bank	All

SUBSCRIBE TO AUSTRADE’S MONTHLY NEWSLETTER TO STAY IN TOUCH

CONTACT US VIA THE GO GLOBAL TOOLKIT TO ACCESS THE CONSOLIDATED INFRASTRUCTURE PIPELINE

Partners:

OFFICIAL

PACIFIC INFRASTRUCTURE ROADSHOW

JUNE 2025

Partners:

OFFICIAL

BOARDROOM BRIEFING

Venue: Austrade Office, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne VIC 3000, Australia

Time (AEST)	Agenda
09:00 – 09:45	Symal Michael Sterling, Chief Strategy Officer Symal Group Limited is a construction group focused on civil infrastructure, contracting, plant and equipment hire, material sales, recycling and remediation via a vertically integrated project delivery model. It provides provide an end-to-end civil construction solution with touchpoints across the entire construction project lifecycle under four brands. Symal does not have previous experience in the Pacific but flagged with Austrade in February 2025 that they are interested in exploring the opportunity.
10:00 – 10:45	Ventia Tim Ryan, Director of Business Development, Social Infrastructure Ventia Services Group Limited is an essential infrastructure services provider in Australia and New Zealand providing the services that keep infrastructure working for communities. It has access to a combined workforce of more than 35,000 people, operating in over 400 sites across Australia and New Zealand and operates across a range of industry segments, including defence, social infrastructure, water, electricity and gas, resources, telecommunications and transport. Ventia purchased consulting engineers ICD Asia Pacific to form Ventia Engineering Services (VES) in 2020. ICD had been active in the resources, infrastructure and oil & gas sectors. VES is part of the Link Alliance, delivering the City Rail Link in Auckland. Ventia previously delivered facilities management services to the Department of Home Affairs on Nauru and Manus.
11:00 – 11:45	DT Infrastructure James Elliot, Director, Strategy & Growth, Infrastructure & Transport DT Infrastructure specialised capabilities include the design and construction of light rail, heavy rail, signalling, track and station works, rail safety technology, bridges and roads. The road Infrastructure services include the complete design and construction of road earthworks, pavement construction, bridges and tunnels, and associated civil structures. DT Infrastructure was formerly the infrastructure arm of Downer Group before separating and being purchased by Malaysian company Gamuda Berhad. Neither have Pacific experience, though Gamuda is active in Southeast Asia. DT Infrastructure is contracted to Defence for major infrastructure projects in Australia. It also has experience with large road, rail, and renewables projects.

Partners:

12:00 – 12:45

AccionaGreg Cain, Head of Major Projects and OriginationJesse Levin, Corporate Development & Strategy

Acciona is a global group that develops and manages sustainable infrastructure solutions, especially in renewable energy. Their business spans the entire value chain, from design and construction through to operation and maintenance. Acciona originated in Spain; the Australian arm commenced in 2002, focused on renewables development. It now has a broad-based infrastructure and construction capability via continuing expansion (it purchased Hornibrooks and Boulderstone). No evidence of Pacific experience beyond Australia. Acciona has flagged interest in projects above AU$100m.

Participating Pacific Infrastructure Partners

Name	Designation	Participation
Brad Williams	General Manager, NZ Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission	All
Tim Houghton	Trade Commissioner, Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission	All
Sam Bunt	Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade	Melbourne
Paul Wright	Director, Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Branch, Department of Defence	Melbourne, Sydney
Mohammad Amin Saskai	Senior Procurement Specialist, World Bank	All
Rubina Shaheen	Principal Procurement Specialist, Asian Development Bank	All

Partners:

AFTERNOON SEMINAR

Venue: ANZ Headquarters, 833 Collins St, Docklands VIC 3008, Australia

Time (AEST)	Agenda
13:30	Registrations open
13:50	Introduction and Seminar Overview Brad Williams General Manager, NZ Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission
13:55	ANZ role in the Pacific Rabih Yazbek ANZ Country Head Fiji
14:05	Remarks from the CEO, Australian Trade and Investment Commission Paul Grimes, CEO, Australian Trade and Investment Commission
14:10	Whole-of-Pacific Infrastructure Pipeline Summary Tim Houghton Trade Commissioner, Pacific, Australian Trade & Investment Commission Tim Houghton is the Australian Trade Commissioner for the Pacific based in Suva, Fiji. Tim will present on the $1.9 billion whole-of-region infrastructure pipeline split across 566 upcoming contracts from ADB, World Bank, DFAT/AIFFP, EU/EIB and New Zealand. He will present a breakdown by sector, market and give a sense of what's coming up next.
14:20	Activity Overview: Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific Samuel Bunt, Director, Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific (AIFFP), Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Sam Bunt leads the private sector portfolio within AIFFP's investment team. He has been with the AIFFP for over 5 years. Prior to AIFFP, he worked at a Big 4 accounting firm providing consulting services to public and private clients in Australia and Hong Kong. Sam will provide an overview of the AIFFP, its procurement framework, and pipeline.

Partners:

14:30

Activity Overview: World Bank

Mohammad Amin Saskai Senior Procurement Specialist – World Bank

Amin is a Senior Procurement Specialist at the World Bank, based in Sydney. He leads procurement reform dialogue with Pacific Island countries and provides strategic advice and fiduciary support across a range of World Bank-financed projects.

Amin will speak about upcoming procurement opportunities and the World Bank's ongoing efforts to advance procurement reform in the region. His remarks will focus on how these reforms are driving improved outcomes, with an emphasis on enhancing quality, strengthening systems, and aligning with international best practices.

14:40

Activity Overview: Asian Development Bank

Rubina Shaheen Principal Procurement Specialist, Asian Development Bank

Rubina is Principal Procurement Specialist at Asian Development Bank located at ADB office in Papua New Guinea and covering South Pacific Region. She has diversified experience working in public procurement on various infrastructure projects including procurement reforms. Rubina will focus on ADB Procurement Framework and the upcoming ADB pipeline.

14:50

Activity Overview: Australian Department of Defence

Colonel Paul Wright Director, Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Branch, Department of Defence

Paul is currently posted as Director Infrastructure (Indo-Pacific West), Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Branch within Pacific Division, responsible for delivery and maintenance of security-related infrastructure for Indo-Pacific partner nations. Paul will be speaking about future Defence project opportunities across the Indo-Pacific.

Partners:

15:00	Perspective of the Private Sector: Reeves International Simon Gorman Managing Director CCB Envico & Reeves International Simon is a construction professional who has managed projects across the world. He has significant experience in international disaster settings and complex emergencies as well as traditional large-scale infrastructure. He has spent time working on and leading projects in Indonesia, Hong Kong, Rwanda, Somalia, Vanuatu, Micronesia, the Solomon Islands, Sri Lanka and the Marshall Islands. Simon is currently the President of the Australia Pacific Islands Business Council (APIBC) and will talk about doing business in the Pacific from the perspective of a contractor.
15:10	Understanding Financing Support Available: Export Finance Australia Simon O’Connell Associate Director, Business Financing Export Finance Australia Simon has 20 years corporate and commercial banking specialising in working capital and cash flow lending. Banking experience at Westpac, NAB and Bank West. Specialising in assisting companies establish and grow their international market presence. Simon will highlight the role of Export Finance Australia and its capacity to support the private sector in capitalising on Pacific infrastructure opportunities.
15:20	Highlighting Upcoming Events Pacific Infrastructure Conference The Australia Pacific Islands Business Council is coordinating the upcoming Pacific Infrastructure Conference (18-20 August 2025). Attendees will include Pacific Islands governments, development partners and the private sector. This builds on the inaugural event in 2023 and the Business Opportunities Seminar in Nadi in 2024, both of which had 400-500 delegates. Looking Further in Infrastructure Opportunities: Southeast Asia Austrade Southeast Asia have prepared a pre-recorded video highlighting opportunities across the region. The key event for getting more information on these opportunities is to register for the ADB Business Opportunities Fair held in Manila (16-17 September 2025).
15:25	Q&A
15:45	Close
15:45 – 17:30	Networking afternoon tea

Partners:

SUBSCRIBE TO AUSTRADE'S MONTHLY NEWSLETTER TO STAY IN TOUCH

CONTACT US VIA THE GO GLOBAL TOOLKIT TO ACCESS THE CONSOLIDATED INFRASTRUCTURE PIPELINE

Partners:

OFFICIAL

PACIFIC INFRASTRUCTURE ROADSHOW

4 JUNE 2025

Partners:

OFFICIAL

BOARDROOM BRIEFING

Venue: Dentons, Level 16, 77 Castlereagh Street Sydney NSW 2000

Time (AEST)	Agenda
09:00 – 09:45	BY Group Malcolm Devin, General Manager Rob DeBrincat, Design & Innovation Manager John Cheyney, Estimating Manager BY Group have over 20 years' experience delivering commercial, residential, civil and solar construction projects. They specialize in construction, refurbishment & fit out, civil construction, solar farm construction and residential construction. BY Group have experience in the Solomon Islands and are interested in exploring opportunities in the region more broadly. They have partnered closely with local Solomon Islands firm Hatanga.
11:00 – 11:45	PSG Holdings Troy Rugles, CEO Josh Tinker, General Manager John Georges, Business Development Manager PSG Holdings are an Indigenous-owned business with national capability, providing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Construction - Commercial Cleaning Services - Maintenance - Facilities Management PSG Holdings has built a strong reputation for outstanding customer service, reliability, on-time delivery and quality. Their national footprint includes locations across Australia. Austrade is not aware of recent experience in the Pacific.
12:00 – 12:45	Hansen Yuncken David Yuncken, Co-Chairman Hansen Yuncken is a privately owned, national Australian construction company, operating since 1918. With over 600 staff, they specialize in commercial and institutional building construction, including design and build, project management, fit-outs, and refurbishments. They've been at the forefront of change and innovation in the building industry.

Partners:

Participating Pacific Infrastructure Partners

Name	Designation	Participation
Brad Williams	General Manager, NZ Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission	All
Tim Houghton	Trade Commissioner, Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission	All
Mick Lilley	Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade	Sydney, Brisbane
Paul Wright	Director, Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Branch, Department of Defence	Melbourne, Sydney
Mohammad Amin Saskai	Senior Procurement Specialist, World Bank	All
Rubina Shaheen	Principal Procurement Specialist, Asian Development Bank	All

Partners:

AFTERNOON SEMINAR

Venue: Dentons, Level 16, 77 Castlereagh Street Sydney NSW 2000

Time (AEST)	Agenda
13:30	Registrations open
14:00	Introduction and Seminar Overview Brad Williams General Manager, NZ Pacific, Australian Trade and Investment Commission
14:05	Remarks from the Australian Trade and Investment Commission Elizabeth Fells, General Manager Government and Policy Division, Australian Trade and Investment Commission
14:10	Whole-of-Pacific Infrastructure Pipeline Summary Tim Houghton Trade Commissioner, Pacific, Australian Trade & Investment Commission Tim Houghton is the Australian Trade Commissioner for the Pacific based in Suva, Fiji. Tim will present on the $1.9 billion whole-of-region infrastructure pipeline split across 566 upcoming contracts from ADB, World Bank, DFAT/AIFFP, EU/EIB and New Zealand. He will present a breakdown by sector, market and give a sense of what's coming up next.
14:20	Activity Overview: Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific Mick Lilley, Chief Investment Officer (Acting), Australian Infrastructure Financing Facility for the Pacific (AIFFP), Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Mick Lilley is currently acting Chief Investment Officer for the AIFFP. He has been with the AIFFP since its inception. Mick has a long history as a public servant, investment banker and infrastructure adviser. Mick will speak to upcoming projects within the AIFFP portfolio.

Partners:

14:30

Activity Overview: World BankMohammad Amin Saskai Senior Procurement Specialist – World Bank

Amin is a Senior Procurement Specialist at the World Bank, based in Sydney. He leads procurement reform dialogue with Pacific Island countries and provides strategic advice and fiduciary support across a range of World Bank-financed projects.

Amin will speak about upcoming procurement opportunities and the World Bank's ongoing efforts to advance procurement reform in the region. His remarks will focus on how these reforms are driving improved outcomes, with an emphasis on enhancing quality, strengthening systems, and aligning with international best practices.

14:40

Activity Overview: Asian Development BankRubina Shaheen Principal Procurement Specialist, Asian Development Bank

Rubina is Principal Procurement Specialist at Asian Development Bank located at ADB office in Papua New Guinea and covering South Pacific Region. She has diversified experience working in public procurement on various infrastructure projects including procurement reforms. Rubina will focus on ADB Procurement Framework and the upcoming ADB pipeline.

14:50

Activity Overview: Australian Department of DefenceColonel Paul Wright Director, Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Branch, Department of Defence

Paul is currently posted as Director Infrastructure (Indo-Pacific West), Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Branch within Pacific Division, responsible for delivery and maintenance of security-related infrastructure for Indo-Pacific partner nations. Paul will be speaking about future Defence project opportunities across the Indo-Pacific.

Partners:

15:00

Perspective of the Private Sector: Reeves International

Simon Gorman Managing Director CCB Envico & Reeves International

Simon is a construction professional who has managed projects across the world. He has significant experience in international disaster settings and complex emergencies as well as traditional large-scale infrastructure. He has spent time working on and leading projects in Indonesia, Hong Kong, Rwanda, Somalia, Vanuatu, Micronesia, the Solomon Islands, Sri Lanka and the Marshall Islands. Simon is currently the President of the Australia Pacific Islands Business Council (APIBC) and will talk about doing business in the Pacific from the perspective of a contractor.

15:10

Understanding Financing Support Available: Export Finance Australia

Michael Rezinikov State Director NSW & ACT, Business Financing Export Finance Australia

Michael has over 20 years' experience in international banking and marketing in Australia and Canada. Banking experience in a variety of corporate banking and invoice finance with HSBC and Morrison Financial Services in Canada. Michael will highlight the role of Export Finance Australia and its capacity to support the private sector in capitalising on Pacific infrastructure opportunities.

15:20

Highlighting Upcoming Events

Pacific Infrastructure Conference

The Australia Pacific Islands Business Council is coordinating the upcoming Pacific Infrastructure Conference (18-20 August 2025). Attendees will include Pacific Islands governments, development partners and the private sector. This builds on the inaugural event in 2023 and the Business Opportunities Seminar in Nadi in 2024, both of which had 400-500 delegates.

Looking Further in Infrastructure Opportunities: Southeast Asia

Austrade Southeast Asia have prepared a pre-recorded video highlighting opportunities across the region. The key event for getting more information on these opportunities is to register for the ADB Business Opportunities Fair held in Manila (16-17 September 2025).

Partners:

15:25	Q&A
15:45	Close
15:45 - 17:30	Networking afternoon tea

Partners:

OFFICIAL

SUBSCRIBE TO AUSTRADE'S MONTHLY NEWSLETTER TO STAY IN TOUCH

CONTACT US VIA THE GO GLOBAL TOOLKIT TO ACCESS THE CONSOLIDATED INFRASTRUCTURE PIPELINE

Partners:

OFFICIAL