Lesson 1;

---

The sub-national experience gives life to national and international commitments.

Lesson 2:

---

Understanding context
is key – people, data,
processes, environment

Lesson 3:

---

Scale and replication must be dealt with caution
- general vs. particular

Lesson 4:

---

Intermediation is necessary and critical in the provision and use of information.

Lesson 5:

---

Print is not dead
- we have to mind form and function.

Lesson 6:

---

We want people to be the center of this process.
