

Enhancing Women-focused Investments in Climate and Disaster Resilience (WfIR)

3 June 2020

Zonibel Woods Arghya Sinha Roy

Why This Publication?

What Do We Mean?

Investments that explicitly strengthens resilience of women, particularly poor women and/or investments that are led by women and advances resilience.

Why Does It Matter?

What Should Be The Characteristics?

1. Women as starting point based on robust understanding of risk

5. Aim for transformational change

2. Address structural inequalities between women and men

4. Generate financial returns

3. Reduce women's time poverty and burden of care

IDEAS FOR INVESTMENTS!

Gender equality 1. Agricultural 2. Climate-Smart Extension Services Vegetable Farming Targeted Toward, through Home Tailored To, and Gardens Led by Women Resilience 3. Women-4. Disaster-resilient Operated microfinance for Decentralized women Water Treatment Schemes for Livelihood Diversification Gender equality

What Are The Supporting Factors?

 Enabling policy, planning and implementation mechanisms

• Evidence and data

Horizontal and vertical coordination

Risk-informed inclusive governance

What Are The Opportunities?

- Operational Priority (OP) 2 and OP3 of Strategy 2030
- New Normal in Post COVID-19 World
- ADF 13 Thematic Pool
- Proposed Community Resilience Partnership Program