Amendment of section 31 of the principal enactment.

“(3) Any person aggrieved by any direction issued by the Director-General under subsection (2), may within three days of the affixing of the notice, appeal therefrom to the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom the subject of coast conservation has been assigned,

(3A) On receipt of an appeal under subsection (3), the Secretary shall forthwith require the Director-General to forward all relevant documents and files to him. It shall be the duty of the Director-General to forward, within fourteen (14) days of such a request, all relevant documents and files if any, to the Secretary. The Secretary may, where he is of the opinion that it is essential in order to arrive at a decision, give the appellant an opportunity to be heard in person.

(3B) The Secretary shall within forty five (45) days of the receipt of the appeal, make his decision on such appeal and inform both, the Director-General and the appellant of his decision. It shall be the duty of the Director-General to give effect to such decision. The decision of the Secretary on any such appeal shall be final.

(3C) No person on whom a order has been served under subsection (2), or who has appealed against the order under subsection (3), shall continue to erect or construct any unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building or permit any such unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building to remain standing in such place.

(3D) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (3c) shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not less than fifty thousand rupees, and not exceeding five hundred thousand rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a term of not less than one year and not exceeding three years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) The Director-General shall either upon the serving of an order of demolition in terms of subsection (2) or on the conclusion of any appeal in terms of subsection (3), cause the construction of the unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building to be taken down and removed from the land. The total cost incurred in the taking down of the unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building and the cost incurred in the removal of all materials used in the construction of the unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building shall be recovered from such person as a debt due to the State:

Provided that it shall be the responsibility of any person who is required in terms of the preceding provisions of this section, to take down and remove any unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building as is specified, prior to the expiration of the period specified, to remove or cause to be removed therefrom all of his possessions as are presently within such unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building.

(4A) Where any person alleges at any time after the taking down and removal of any unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building as aforesaid, that any item of his possessions has been lost, the onus shall lie on such person to prove beyond reasonable doubt, that the item was in his possession immediately prior to such taking down and removing, as the case may be.

(4B) Wherever in any proceeding in terms of this section the question arises as to the existence of an unauthorized structure, house, hut, shed or other building which has been taken down and removed, a Certificate under the hand of the Director-General shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence thereof.”

Insertion of new section 31BB in the principal enactment.

29. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 31B of the principal enactment and shall have effect as section 31BB, of that enactment :

“Sea Corals. 31BB (1). The provisions of sections 31A and 31B shall mutatis mutandis apply in relation to the mining, collecting, possession, processing, storing, burning and transporting of sea coral within or outside the Coastal Zone.

(2) In any prosecution if the question arises as to whether the article being mined, collected, possessed, processed, stored, burnt and transported was sea coral, then a Certificate under the hand of the Director-General to that effect shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.”.

Replacement of section 31E of the principal enactment.

30. Section 31E of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :—

“Transport and storage of sand or sea shells.

31E. (1) Any police officer shall have the power to—

- (a) stop and examine any vehicle, vessel, boat or craft transporting or suspected of transporting sand or sea shells ;
- (b) enter and inspect any premises on which sand or sea shells are stored.

(2) The onus of proving that such sand or sea shells were obtained lawfully shall be on the person transporting or storing, as the case may be, such sand or sea shells. Any person who is unable to furnish proof that the transporting or storing was lawful, shall be guilty of an offence.”.

31. Section 31F of the principal enactment is hereby amended as follows :—

Amendment of section 31F of the principal enactment.

- (1) by the renumbering of that section as subsection (1) thereof ;
- (2) in the renumbered subsection (1) by the substitution for the words “credited to the Police Reward Fund established under the Police Ordinance, fifty per centum” of the words “established a Fund called the “Coastal Protection Reward Fund” (hereinafter referred to as “the Fund”) to which shall be credited all fines recovered under this Act and all sums of money realized by the disposal of articles forfeited under the provisions of this Act.” ; and
- (3) by the addition immediately after the renumbered subsection (1) of the following new subsections :—

“(2) The Director-General shall be responsible for the administration of the Fund and for the maintenance of the accounts of the Fund. The Auditor-General shall annually audit the accounts of the Fund.

(3) The Director-General may, with the concurrence of the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom the subject of Coast Conservation and Coastal Resource Management is assigned, and of the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom of the subject of Finance is assigned, pay a reward to any person eligible to receive the same. The Minister shall from time to time issue guidelines designed to assist in the determination of the qualifications for eligibility and other criteria governing the payment of any such reward.”.

Insertion of new section 31G and 31H and 31I in the principal enactment.

32. The following new sections are hereby inserted immediately after section 31F of the principal enactment and shall have effect as sections 31G and 31H of that enactment :—

“Filling of land or water bodies without a permit to be an offence.

31G. (1) No person shall, within the Coastal Zone, fill any land or any water body without a permit issued in that behalf by the Director-General.

(2) The Director-General may, by giving notice to the person or persons acting in contravention of the provisions of subsection (1) direct such person or persons to forthwith remove the substance or matter used for filling up the land or water body in question from such land or water body and restore the land or water body to the condition it was in prior to such filling, within such time as the Director-General may specify in such notice.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the direction of the Director-General made under subsection (2) may, within three days of the date of the notice being served on him, appeal therefrom to the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister to whom the subject of Coast Conservation and Coastal Resource Management is assigned. The decision of the Secretary on any such appeal shall be final.

(4) On receipt of an appeal under subsection (3), the Secretary shall forthwith require the Director-General to forward all relevant documents and files to him. It shall be the duty of the Director-General to forward, within seven days of such a request, all relevant documents and files if any, to the Secretary. The Secretary may, where he is of the opinion that it is essential in order to arrive at a decision, give the appellant an opportunity to be heard in person.

(5) The Secretary shall make his decision on such appeal within thirty days of the receipt of the appeal and inform both the Director-General and the appellant of his decision. It shall be the duty of the Director-General to give effect to such decision. The decision of the Secretary on any such appeal shall be final.

(6) No person on whom a direction has been served under subsection (2), or who has appealed against the order under subsection (3), shall continue to fill any land or water body.

(7) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (6) shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not less than fifty thousand rupees and not exceeding five hundred thousand rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a term of not less than one year and not exceeding three years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(8) Where any person or persons fails to remove the substance or matter used for filling up the land or water body in question from such land or water body and restore the land or water body to the condition it was in prior to such filling, within such time as the Director-General had specified in the notice under subsection (2) or as specified by the Secretary when rejecting the appeal, the Director-General shall cause the substance or matter to be removed from the land or the water body as the case may be, and the total cost of the removal of the substance and matter used for filling the land or the water body as the case may be, shall be recovered from such person as a debt due to the State.

30 Coast Conservation (Amendment)

(9) Wherever in any proceeding in terms of this section the question arises as to the existence of a land or water body which has been filled and from which the substance or matter used for filling has subsequently been removed, a Certificate under the hand of the Director-General shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

Bail not to be allowed. 31H. No bail shall be allowed by a Magistrate during the continuance of any proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act :

Provided however that the High Court of the Province established under Article 154G of the Constitution may, for exceptional circumstances shown to the satisfaction of the Court, allow bail to an accused person in respect of an offence under this Act.”.

Replacement of section 35A of the principal enactment.

33. Section 35A of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the repeal of subsection (1) of that section and the substitution therefor of the following subsections :—

“(1) A police officer may without an order from a Magistrate and without obtaining a warrant, arrest any person reasonably suspected of having been concerned in, or connected with, the commission of an offence under this Act, punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding six months.”

34. The following new sections are hereby inserted immediately after section 35A of the principal enactment and shall have effect as section 35AA and 35AAA of that enactment :—

Insertion of new sections 35A and 35AAA in the principal enactment.

“Offences under the Act to be cognisable offences. 35AA. Every offence under this Act shall be a cognizable offence within the meaning, and for the purposes of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 and the provisions of such Act shall apply accordingly.

Immunity from suit. 35AAA. No civil or criminal action shall be instituted against a police officer acting under the provisions of this Act, for any lawful act which is done or purported to be done in good faith by such police officer in pursuance of his duties under this Act.”.

35. In the event of any inconsistency between the Sinhala and Tamil texts of this Act, the Sinhala text shall prevail.

Sinhala text to prevail in case of inconsistency.
