The screenshot shows the ADB Business Center website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'News and Events', 'ADB Institute', 'Contact', and 'English'. Below this is a search bar and a main header with the ADB logo and 'ASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK'. The main content area features a large orange banner with the text 'ADB Business Center'. Below the banner, there is a breadcrumb trail: 'You are here: Home > Business Center > Guides'. The main heading is 'Using the Consultant Management System (CMS): Quick Reference Guides for Individual Consultants and Consulting Firms', dated 'November 2020'. There are social media icons for Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, and Print. A 'Related' section lists two articles: 'What is the Consultant Management System?' and 'How Do I Use the Consultant Management System (CMS)?'. The page is divided into sections: '1. Individual consultant', 'Individual consultant basics and registration', 'Opportunities, submitting expressions of interest (EOIs), and accepting offers', and 'Staff consulting contract administration'. Each section contains a list of topics covered in the guides.

Ask your Bank Representative who handles cross border transactions

CMS TIP: Provide intermediary bank

An intermediary bank is required when the currency referred to in your payment instructions is not the local currency of the country where the beneficiary bank is located (unless the indicated beneficiary bank is an ADB in-house bank). The intermediary bank is located in the country of the indicated payment currency. If the payment currency cannot be directly handled by the beneficiary bank, then payment will be coursed through the indicated intermediary bank. Transmittal charges will apply based on the specified intermediary bank.

Why do I need it?

To avoid unapplied payments, delays and unnecessary transaction fees.
