Overview of the Key Changes March 2025

March 2025 Updates to the Bank's Procurement Framework

- 6th Edition of Procurement Regulations issued that apply for all Projects after March 1, 2025
- Updated Procurement Procedure issued - applies for all projects
- New SPDs dated March 2025 that apply for all international procurement issued after March 1, 2025

What are the major changes

- For International Procurement, minimum weightings for Rated Criteria (e.g., non-price, qualitative, technical matters) now established to be determined based on the procurement risk and cost
- Early Market engagement required for international competitive procurements, at or above $10 million
- Publication in United Nations Development Business no longer required

Rated Criteria

What is Rated Criteria?

Rated criteria are designed to ensure that the evaluation is comprehensive, transparent, and aligned with the objectives of the procurement. Since 2016, the Bank's Procurement Framework has permitted the use of Rated Criteria to evaluate Bids and Proposals.

Since 2023

International procurements using Bank Standard Procurement Documents must use rated criteria in their evaluations.

As of March 2025

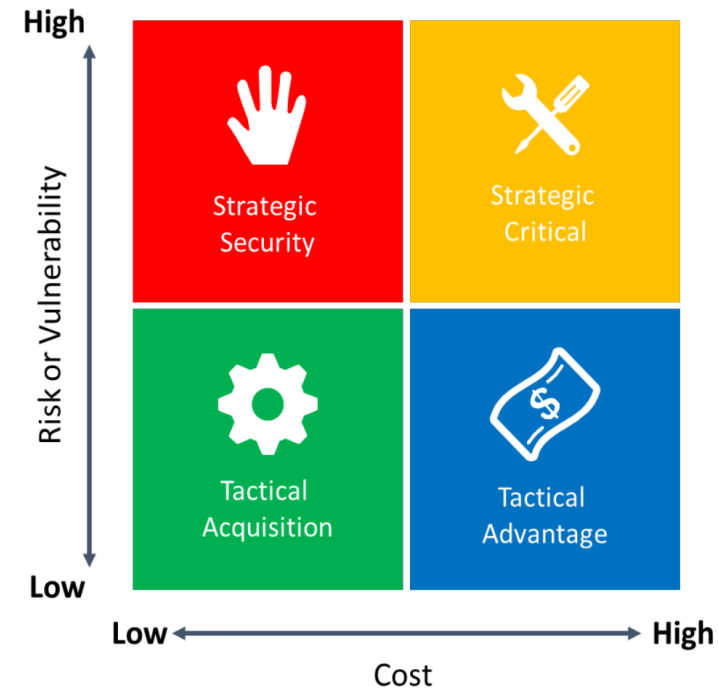

International procurements must use specific minimum quality weightings based on their value and risk, meaning most international procurements will require a minimum 50% weighting for quality.

PPSD Supply Positioning

informs appropriate Procurement approach

- Supply Positioning helps identify key considerations for the Borrower, such as:
 - How important is the activity for Project?
 - Have Technical risks addressed well?
 - How complex is the procurement?
 - How competitive is the market?
 - Are alternatives available if procurement approach fails?
- Informs procurement approach to mitigate procurement-related risks
- Informs qualitative attributes to be considered in the evaluation
- Informs indicative weighting between technical aspects and financial cost

Using Rated Criteria

- General Principles

- Rated Criteria are subset of Evaluation Criteria, within the whole Evaluation Approach
- Rated Criteria are qualitative and help measure differentiation of Bids/Proposals
- Prioritized and focused on critical technical matters
- Weighted according to importance
- Tailored to specific project needs (avoid a cookie cutter approach)
- Use two-envelopes for all applicable procurements

- Common issues that Rated Criteria may assess:

- Works methodology
- Extent technical proposal exceeds minimum requirements
- Credibility of related plans, risk assessments, proposed approaches to implement the contract, deliver environmental & social objectives etc.
- Experience and skills proposed key personnel

Use of Quality Thresholds

- Can set a minimum quality threshold for critical Rated Criteria:
 - To reject Bids/Proposals that do not meet the minimum quality threshold at Technical evaluation stage
- A minimum quality threshold may apply to:
 - Total combined score of all qualitative criteria
 - Combined score of selected qualitative criteria
 - Score for an individual qualitative criterion
- Exclusion of abnormally low-priced bids helps to address quality risks
- Make sure quality thresholds are realistic, not anti-competitive and/or discriminatory

Benefits of the new Procurement Framework for suppliers and contractors

Ø Much more focus on suppliers and contractors:

Ø How best to engage with you, how to motivate you, how to persuade you to bid on procurements

Ø Opportunities for more dialogue and engagement

Ø Ability to offer innovative solutions to meet needs

Ø More efficient procurement approaches

Ø In general due to use of fit for purpose procurement approaches and methods

Ø By appropriate Borrowers receiving hands on implementation support from Bank staff, to fix any problems before they start

Ø Prompt handling of complaints and issues

Ø Standstill periods to fix any problems, before award

Ø Supports modern, collaborative procurement practices

WHY CONTRACT LOCAL LABOR?

“PROCUREMENT OPERATIONALIZES WORLD BANK GROUP’S JOBS AGENDA”

Local Labor requirement = Creation of Local Jobs

Public infrastructure spending yields some of the highest employment multipliers among fiscal instruments.

Investments prioritizing local labor economic impact are further enhanced through local multiplier effects. Earnings are more likely to be spent within the domestic economy, reinforcing demand and fostering broader economic activity.

WBG and IMF studies suggest between 10.4 to 30.2 direct jobs are created per $1 million of public infrastructure spending (e.g. Transport, Energy & Water)

Key Benefits:

Economic Impact:

Implementing a local labor policy can stimulate job creation, boost the local economy, and increase government revenue.

Workforce Development: A local labor policy can enhance workforce capabilities through skill development and reduce dependency on external labor.

Community & Environmental:

Employing local workers can strengthen community ties, promote social cohesion, and reduce the environmental impact of large-scale projects.

LOCAL LABOR PROCUREMENT CHANGE:

Local Labor 2025

22

Local Labor Participation Requirements

New Requirements – Effective September 1, 2025

For works contracts subject to international competitive procurement and required to use Bank Standard Procurement Documents (SPDs) the Borrower will:

1. Require that bidders allocate not less than 30% of the total labor cost under the contract to the employment of local labor under the contract to the employment of local staff and personnel (Local Labor), unless otherwise agreed in the Project Procurement Strategy for Development (PPSD).
2. When specified in the Procurement Documents for a particular works contract, the Bidders should also include proposals for developing skills of low and/or semi-skilled local workers, which will be evaluated by the Borrower using Rated Criteria.

New Requirement:

For all projects with a PCN approved on or after September 1, 2025, for international works procurements where Bank SPDs are required Bidders are required to allocate no less than 30% of total labor cost to the employment of local labor.
