1. Deciding on interpellation of each of the ministers in accordance with the provisions of article 92 of this constitution.
2. Taking the final decision about the state's development programs and state budget, in case of a disagreement between the Wolesi Jirga and the Meshrano Jirga.
3. Approval of the appointments according to the provisions of this constitution.

Article Ninety- two

Wolesi Jirga, based on a proposal by one-tenth of all members, can interpellate each of the Ministers.

If the responses given are not satisfactory, Wolesi Jirga shall consider the issue of vote of no confidence.

Vote of no confidence on a Minister should be explicit, direct, and on the basis of well founded reasons.

This vote should be approved by a majority of all members of the Wolesi Jirga.

Article Ninety-three

Any commission of both Houses of the National Assembly can question each of the Ministers about specific topics.

The person questioned can provide verbal or written response.

Article Ninety-four

Law is what both Houses of the National Assembly approve and the President endorses unless this Constitution states otherwise.

In case the President does not agree to what the National Assembly approves, he or she can send the document back with justifiable reasons to the Wolesi Jirga within fifteen days of its submission.

With the passage of this period or in case the Wolesi Jirga approves a particular case again with a majority of two-thirds votes, the bill is considered endorsed and enforced.

Article Ninety-five
