Panel 4: SD in the Context of Rising Regionalism and a Borderless Workforce

Regional Cooperation in Cross-Border-Skills Development (Issues for ASEAN)

Kerstin Nagels, GIZ Indonesia

Background to my Contribution

- TVET and Labour Markets Program Implementation in Indonesia
  - ✓ that includes support to development of vocational qualifications for the Indonesian Qualification Framework and
  - ✓ Trilateral cooperation between Indonesia, Myanmar and Germany (since 02/2012)

- Co-chair to GIZ TVET and Labour Markets Sector Working Group in Asia
  - ✓ With an increasing number of regional initiatives

Labour Markets:

find the right
balance between “liberalising and protecting”

manage expectations/fears
between gains
abroad and losses
at home

Finding the one framework
that fits all...

... filling it with vocational qualifications

... establishing
relevant
training
programs

Establish (manual)
labour and skills (development) as an attractive career
development option

improve the image of TVET in the region

Have the right people talk to each other:
MoL – MoE –
MoST – MoY -
....

Increase cooperation between the Asian (ASEAN) countries on TVET quality.

Instructors / TVET productive teachers are a good starting point.
