Parliamentary engagement with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

This is not an ADB material. The views expressed in this document are the views of the author/s and/or their organizations and do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Asian Development Bank, or its Board of Governors, or the governments they represent. ADB does not guarantee the accuracy and/or completeness of the material's contents, and accepts no responsibility for any direct or indirect consequence of their use or reliance, whether wholly or partially. Please feel free to contact the authors directly should you have queries.

The role of parliaments in Agenda 2030 and the SDGs

"We acknowledge the essential role of national parliaments through their enactment of legislation and adoption of budgets and their role in ensuring accountability for the effective implementation of our commitments" Declaration of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

"Promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all, and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels" Goal 16 Some benefits of Parliamentary engagement on the SDGs

Increased National Ownership

Platform for national discussion

Developing debate and consensus

Allows for formal input from citizens and CSOs

Provides oversight and accountability to track progress

How parliaments can engage with the SDGs

Oversight

Legislation

Representation

Budget Scrutiny

Challenges to effective parliamentary SDG engagement

Lack of access to aid and budget information

Capacitated parliaments for SDGs partnership

Project overview

Direct support for partner parliaments to assess and develop their capacities Regional exchange and sharing of good practices and lessons learned.

Global knowledge development and network of practice for parliaments on the SDGs

OUTCOME:

Agreed number of Parliaments empowered to effectively and transparently enact legislation, adopt budgets, and monitor implementation of the SDGs in an inclusive and participatory manner

Parliamentary Handbook on Parliament's role in implementing of the SDGs.

UNDP's offer as main implementing partner

UNDP is the largest global provider of parliamentary assistance - providing support to around 1 in 3 parliaments worldwide UNDP is the chief operational interface of the UN system with national parliaments, including with regard to the SDGs and the Sustaining Peace agenda

UNDP is a multilateral and impartial partner with experience in supporting implementon of MDGs

Timeframe

April 2017 Launch of parliamentary handbook.

Partnership formed July 2017 Launch of project to support parliaments on SDG implementation and regional and global knowledge development and exchange December 2020

Project fully implemented:

Partner parliaments strengthened;

Regional and Global capacities enhanced.

The project is modular but is anticipated to cost $10m (assuming 20 partner parliaments). IsDB has expressed interest to support on the basis that other IFIs provide matching resources

Sum up

Agenda 2030 places accountable institutions and inclusive decision making at the heart of achieving the SDGs

Project is modular but is anticipated to cost $10m (assuming 15-20 partner parliaments): from July 2017 UNDP is ready to support global parliaments on SDG implementation

> UNDP is in a unique position to implement strengthening of parliaments and parliamentarians for SDGs

Parliaments' effectiveness is frequently hampered by challenges like weak capacities

In a partnership with IsDB and other IFIs UNDP proposes a project to empower parliaments to be the SDG actors envisaged in Agenda 2030