Different Tables

- The people in a table that is in the right-of-way are a household. Each affected household will notice that on their tables are their assets.
- Tables outside the right-of-way have various roles. Please read the role sheet on your table and discuss with the people in your table on how you will perform this role as the project unfolds.
- Some tables outside the right-of-way may be fortunate to have wildlife. Please be ready to report on potential endangered species when you are called.
- Some tables outside the right-of-way may be fortunate to have plots of land represented by green paper. These are also marked by extra chairs. Please note that you may have the opportunity to sell your land to relocating people.

Compensation

- Note that based on the government's basic schedule of rates (2017) and on the detailed measurement survey and inventory of losses, we are handing out your compensation.
- The government thanks you for agreeing to relocate, all assets present as of 2:00pm of October 22 will be compensated.
- The government thanks you for leaving without complaining for the very important railway project. Please remove all your assets and self-relocate. Please note the government's laws against illegal occupation.
- We have generously arranged with BAD Pawn Shop to buy assets you may wish to dispose if your compensation is not enough to buy new land.

Meaningful Consultation

- Begins early in the project preparation stage and is carried out on an ongoing basis throughout the project cycle;
- Timely disclosure of relevant and adequate information that is understandable and readily accessible to affected people;
- Free of intimidation or coercion;
- Gender inclusive and responsive, and tailored to the needs of disadvantaged and vulnerable groups; and
- Enables the incorporation of all relevant views of affected people and other stakeholders into decision making.

Grievance Redress Mechanisms (GRM)

ADB projects are required to establish a mechanism to receive and facilitate resolution of affected people's (AP) grievances

- Should address affected people's complaints promptly, using a fair and transparent process,
- Needs to be easy to access
- Gender responsive
- Scaled to the risks and impacts of the project
- Can link to (and should not impede) access to the country's judicial or administrative remedies
