

Skilling Asia's Healthcare Workforce (before the pandemic)

This is not an ADB material. The views expressed in this document are the views of the author/s and/or their organizations and do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Asian Development Bank, or its Board of Governors, or the governments they represent. ADB does not guarantee the accuracy and/or completeness of the material's contents, and accepts no responsibility for any direct or indirect consequence of their use or reliance, whether wholly or partially. Please feel free to contact the authors directly should you have queries.

- Strengthening of Licensing and Accreditation systems
 - Investments in Health Education infrastructure
 - Increasing focus on primary care
 - Skilling up of community health workers
 - Expanding use of digital tools in skilling up
- BUT STILL ... hospital-centric and care-centric

Skilling Asia's Healthcare Workforce

Responding to the COVID-19 Pandemic
Leaving No Country Behind

In addition to care skills, rapidly expand...

- Digital skills
 - Use of digital tools to train and educate
 - Use of digital tools to track gaps
- Primary care skills
 - Training as a team
- Health Promotion and communication skills
- Disease surveillance skills
- Strengthening community health workers

