Core Procurement Principles (III)

Prescriptive → Principle based

Can be achieved through application of Sustainable Public Procurement

Eligibility (V)

- To be eligible to participate in procurement for contracts financed by ADB, the bidder, and all parties constituting the Bidder...
 - ✓ shall have the nationality of an eligible country;
 - ✓ shall not have a conflict of interest;
 - ✓ shall not be under temporary suspension or debarment by ADB
 - ✓ and shall not be excluded by an act of compliance with the decision of the UN Security Councils
- The materials, equipment, and services to be supplied under the Contract shall have their origin in eligible source countries

Eligibility (V)

- Any conditions for participation shall be limited to those that are essential to ensure the bidder's capability to fulfill the contract in question
- ADB does not permit a borrower to deny the participation of a bidder for reasons unrelated to its capability and resources to successfully perform the contract, nor does it permit a borrower to disqualify any bidder for such reasons.

Eligibility (V)

- Government-owned enterprises in the Borrower's country may participate as a bidder only if specifically agreed by ADB. Such agreement will only be provided if the bidder can establish that they
 - ❖ can operate as a commercial entity;
 - ❖ are legally and financially autonomous;
 - ❖ are not dependent agency of the borrower
- Government officials and civil servants in the borrower's country may only be hired if they
 - ❖ are not being hired by the agency they were working for immediately before going on leave;
 - ❖ their employment would not create a conflict of interest.

Integrity (VII)

- ADB's Anticorruption Policy and Integrity Principles and Guidelines
- Highest ethics
- Specific definitions for corrupt, coercive, fraudulent, collusive, obstructive practices, and abuse
- Applies to executing and implementing agencies, contractors, consultants, suppliers, ADB staff, and anyone connected to an ADB financed, administered, or supported activity.
- ADB reserves the right to inspect and audit

Respectful Working Environment

- Environment free of unethical or inappropriate behaviors
- Bullying, discrimination, misconduct and harassment, including sexual harassment
- Training provided by contractor and consultant to their staffs is required and to be verified by Employer

Conflict of Interest (VIII)*

- Interests that could cause undue influence on decision making process
- If cannot be appropriately mitigated → may lead to rejection of the bid
- Bidders or consultants may be considered to have a Conflict of Interest if they have conflicting activities, assignments, relationships, ownerships, i.e.:
 - ❖ Participated as a consultant for design/technical specification /project management /supervision of bid package
 - ❖ Have common controlling shareholders (sister concern)
 - ❖ Have same legal representatives for their bids
 - ❖ Submit more than one bid in the bidding process
 - ❖ Have relationship with each other, directly or through common third parties, that puts them in a position to have access of information about another bidder or influence the decision of the purchaser.

E-Procurement

- ADB encourages borrowers to use e-procurement for communication with bidders, advertisement, issuance of bidding document and its amendments, submission of bids, disclosure of contract awards.
- The use of e-procurement in ADB-financed projects shall be endorsed by ADB who will verify that the system is accessible and secure, ensure integrity and confidentiality, and have sufficient audit trail feature.
