

*10th Conference of the Asia Pacific Public Electronic Procurement Network
e-Government Procurement Conference 2024
ADB Headquarters, Mandaluyong City, Metro Manila, Philippines*

This is not an ADB material. The views expressed in this document are the views of the author/s and/or their organizations and do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Asian Development Bank, or its Board of Governors, or the governments they represent. ADB does not guarantee the accuracy and/or completeness of the material's contents, and accepts no responsibility for any direct or indirect consequence of their use or reliance, whether wholly or partially. Please feel free to contact the authors directly should you have queries.

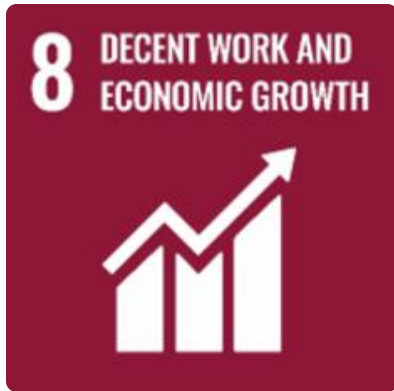

Supporting Indigenous Communities for Sustainable Procurement

Leslie Harper, Senior Specialist, Inter-American Development Bank
December 11, 2024

Economic underrepresentation

Public procurement and social inclusion

Australia

- Indigenous procurement policy (2015)
- Annual targets
- Mandatory set asides
- Certification and Indigenous supplier registry
- Joint ventures indigenous and non-indigenous companies.

Canada

- Procurement strategy for Aboriginal Business (1996)
- Mandatory set asides for suppliers in indigenous areas
- Voluntary set asides
- Joint venture agreements

New Zealand

- Government Procurement rules (2015)
- Considerations for local Maori and Pasifika businesses
- Allows for the fragmentation large contracts

South Africa

- Procurement Act (2000)
- Black Economic Empowerment Act (BBE)
- Preference points

United States

- 8(a) Business development program: 5 percent set - aside
- HUBZone Program: 3 percent set asides for entities

How can electronic government procurement promote access to the public procurement market?

Barrier	Support to businesses owned by women, minorities and people with disabilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access to information 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improved access to public procurement information • Information on sub-contracting opportunities • Communication anywhere/anytime • No geographical constraints within a country
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business capabilities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lower transaction costs of developing a bid • Simplification/ elimination of repetitive tasks • Improved cash Flow • Training in digital tools
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Data 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supplier registry that enables system to identify businesses owned by women, minorities and people with disabilities • Business Intelligence

How can local content contribute to inclusive public procurement?

Lessons Learned

- Political will
- Institutional commitment at the national, regional or local government level
- Definition of eligibility criteria
- Public procurement ecosystem
- Use of Data and monitoring
- Capacity building on both supplier and purchaser side.
- Adapt to country and local context

Interested in learning more?

Check out our paper:

Inclusion of Indigenous Peoples in the Public Procurement Market: Lessons for Latin America and the Caribbean from International Experiences

Gender and Diversity in Fiscal Management

We invite you to explore our knowledge page with events and publications on gender and diversity in the following areas: public expenditure (public investment, public procurement, public budgeting) and revenue collection (tax policy and administration).

FMM Gender and Diversity Knowledge Product and Event Repository

English: Gender and Diversity in Fiscal Management | Cursos | BID | AcademiaBID

Spanish: Género y Diversidad en la Gestión Fiscal | Cursos | BID | AcademiaBID

Thank you!

Leslie Harper, Senior Specialist

leslieha@iadb.org

www.linkedin.com/in/leslie-e-harper

