Way back 2015 and 2016, bumababa pa talaga ako sa Cagayan para lang madownload sa YouTube gamit ang YouTube downloader ng mga free videos kasi walang internet sa amin. Nag-agvail din ako ng mga review materials . March 2017 ako nakapasa after 3 attempts sa CS exam. Nakapaspk bilang Pulis gamit ang CS Prof eligibility noong 2018. Natulungan ko mag-aral ang 2 kong Kapatid , LPT na ngayon at graduate ng BSND . Nakapagpatayo ng sariling bahay. Mararming salamat coach Lyka.

Way back in 2015 to 2016, I would travel to Cagayan just to download your YouTube videos because we didn't have access to the Internet up in the mountains. I passed the Civil Service Exam in 2017 after 3 failed attempts and finally became a police officer in 2018.

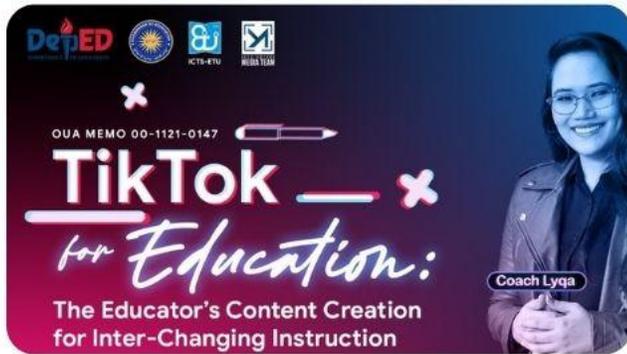

I helped my two siblings with their education. One is a Licensed Professional Teacher and the other just got their college degree. I was also able to build our own home. Thank you so much, Coach.

Hi, Team! Baka some of you want to help us give exam kits (🖋, eraser, sharpener) sa scholars natin sa College Entrance Test review tomorrow. 🙏

70 pesos is enough for one kid. You can send your support here:

Transfer fees may apply.

The background of this section shows shelves in a store filled with various school supplies like pens, pencils, and erasers.

Salute, Coach!

I passed UP Diliman. I am the first college student in the family, and the first one who dared to dream beyond socio-economic barriers. Thank you, Coach, for helping a small dreamer like me to break the generational cycles of poverty and lack of opportunities in our family, little by little.

All I had were dreams and faith, but you equipped me with the wisdom and conviction I needed for the UPCAT. You made me realize that Math isn't carry if approached with a heart that's hungry for learning. Hindi niyo lamang po ako tinulungan, binigyan niyo po ako ng tungtungan. At ang aking buong pamilya. Marami pong salamat.

Hi Ms. Lyqa. I'm one of the attendees in your CETs review that was conducted weeks before the UPCAT sa Microtel. Just wanted to thank you from the bottom of my heart. Kahit hindi ako naka pila para mag patasa sayo that time kasi need ko na makauwi (medj nakakaiyak that time ahuhu) nakapasa ako. You're one of the reasons kung bakit ako ang naging unang iskolar sa pamilya (incoming 1st yr in UPM). Once again, thank you so so muuuchhh <33

Iska na po ako, Coach Lyqa!

I still vividly remember our small yet meaningful interaction during the "patasa" superstition right after the seminar. It may have been a brief encounter, but it's something I'll always treasure—not just because I finally got to meet you in person, but because of the warmth you showed us in that short moment.

You trusted me first, even before I fully trusted myself. It was small, but you made it feel real—that this dream was not just possible, but within my reach, Coach.

When result day came, I didn't get into my first choice, but I was accepted into my second-choice campus and program. It wasn't what I expected—but it was a redirected path—A way that led me to be an Iskolar ng Bayan and a Lingap-Iskolar Grantee.

Dati'y mataas lamang ang tingin sa sarili kung tawagin—musmos na bumuo ng pangarap sa apat na sulok ng silid-aklatan; ngayo'y buong pusong niyayakap ang Unibersidad ng Pilipinas.

I just wanna thank you for helping me pass the UPCAT 2025. I am the first UP student in my clan. May God bless you even more , and continue bridging educational gaps

What will happen to the quality of knowledge available to most people if credible educators do not participate in creating content and those who create disinformation or tainted knowledge keep creating content at scale?

The quality of global knowledge depends directly on whether credible educators actively create content in the AI era.

Their participation is not optional.
It is essential.

They are not just teaching students.
They are teaching the machines that will teach the students.

In essence, the quality of knowledge for most people would not merely decrease; it would become compromised, personalized to be persuasive, and corrosive to collective trust and critical reasoning. The participation of credible educators is not just about adding "good content"; it is about providing the essential anchor of verifiable truth in an ocean of easily manufactured falsehood.
