Identifying and mitigating integrity risks

Building a culture of Integrity

Mentimeter Scenario 1:

You find a wallet on the street containing a large sum of money and the owner's ID.

Would you:

1. Keep the money, justifying it as "finders' keepers"?
2. Report the wallet to the lost and found, hoping the owner claims it?
3. Contact the owner directly using the ID, prioritizing returning the money?

Case Study

- A government agency recently advertised an invitation to bid for an ADB-financed construction of a hydroelectric dam.
- The head of the bid evaluation committee accompanied one of the potential bidders to visit the site where the dam will be constructed.
- This site visit was not announced beforehand. In addition, the site visit and the discussions were not recorded, nor were they shared with other potential bidders.

Case Study (Continuation)

Which of these are red flags of Collusive Practice?
Select the best answer.

1. A site visit was conducted without prior announcement by the bid evaluation committee.
2. The site visit and discussions made during the site visit were not recorded.
3. The site visit and discussions made during the site visit were not shared with other potential bidders.
4. All of the above.
5. None of the above.

Case study: The firm that prepared the project is in a COI situation

- A firm would like to submit an EOI for an EA-administered consulting assignment for detailed engineering design and project readiness support consulting services.
- The firm was part of a JV that ADB previously hired under a TA to develop and prepare the proposed project. Services rendered included preparing a feasibility level design for each subproject, and to prepare the TOR for the design and implementation consultants for the ensuing project.
- The consultant's key deliverables for the (new) consulting assignment include, among others, a review of available studies and preparing a concept design that improves, upgrades, and fills gaps in the existing feasibility studies.

Case study: The firm that prepared the project is in a COI situation

Issue: Whether or not there is COI considering the firm's involvement in preparing the project

Finding: There is COI

- Consultant was tasked under the new contract's TOR to review, assess, and evaluate the feasibility study prepared under a related TA
- The firm (if hired) will verify, update, improve, upgrade, and fill the gap in its JV's work/output produced under the previous TA
- Firm is placed in a position where its interests could improperly influence its performance of its contractual obligations

The Consolidated List includes all individuals and entities subject to measures imposed by the Security Council. The inclusion of all names on one Consolidated List is to facilitate the implementation of the measures, and neither implies that all names are listed under one regime, nor that the criteria for listing specific names are the same. For each instance where the Security Council has decided to impose measures in response to a threat, a Security Council Committee manages the sanctions regime. Each sanctions committee established by the United Nations Security Council therefore publishes the names of individuals and entities listed in relation to that committee as well as information concerning the specific measures that apply to each listed name.

The current version of the Consolidated List is provided in .xml, .html and .pdf formats. Member States are obliged to implement the measures specific to each listed name as specified on the websites of the related sanctions committee.

For all comments and questions concerning all sanctions lists, including the United Nations Consolidated List, kindly contact the Secretariat via the email address: sc-sanctionslists@un.org.
